Public Library Event: Opening Reception, A 75th Year Celebration

Opening reception for UCSB Library’s exhibition which celebrates the 75th anniversary of UC Santa Barbara. Featuring items from UCSB Library’s Special Research Collections, this exhibition examines how and when UCSB transformed from a sleepy liberal arts college into a world class research institution.

There will be an opportunity to view the exhibition with the curators and Special Research Collections Archivists.

We welcome you to also visit Plans for the Future: UCSB Long Range Building Plans, 1944-1990 on display in UCSB Library, Art & Architecture Collection (1st Floor, Mountain Side). This companion exhibition is curated by UCSB’s Art, Design & Architecture (AD&A) Museum and showcases some of the long-range plans for the campus which are housed at the AD&A.

Directions to Lot 14 (Highway 217 Main Entrance):
• Enter Campus through the Henley Gate.
• At Steck Circle (roundabout), veer to the right onto Mesa Road.
• Turn left at the University Plaza (second stoplight).
• Turn right, then left into Parking Lot 14 before the parking structure.
• Golf carts will be available for transport to library main entrance.
