What is United Way?
United Way of Santa Barbara County is a local nonprofit organization that has provided children, adults, and families with services and resources since 1923. United Way improves education, health, and financial stability in Santa Barbara County by creating partnerships and programs that help our community.

What’s the relationship between UCSB and United Way?
UCSB has partnered with United Way for over 60 years to give back to our local community. United Way is UCSB’s exclusive campus-wide nonprofit partner, and like UCSB, United Way is focused on improving education to prepare the next generation of children and students with the skills they need to succeed.
UCSB partners with United Way in a variety of ways to support our community—employee giving, free tax assistance, Day of Caring, Fun in the Sun, etc.

Key Messages
- United Way is local. 100% of your gift to United Way stays in our county.
- United Way focuses on improving education, health, and financial stability.
- United Way has decades of expertise in identifying and responding to local community challenges.
- United Way helps our community during times of disaster and crisis.

Why give to United Way?
Through direct services, programs, funding, volunteer development, and leveraging local partnerships, United Way creates lasting, meaningful solutions to community problems. United Way’s approach engages the entire community and addresses multi-faceted issues with best-in-class programs and services.

Will my gift stay in my community?
Yes! 100% of donations given directly to United Way of Santa Barbara County support local programs and services.

Can I designate my gift?
Yes, you can designate your gift to a United Way focus area or program, or any 501(c)(3) nonprofit organization. Designations to outside organizations require a $115 minimum annual pledge and incur a processing fee.

What are United Way’s operating costs?
According to the Better Business Bureau’s Wise Giving Alliance, a nonprofit’s overhead should not exceed 35%. United Way’s fundraising overhead is 16%. All other operating costs go directly to program operation and support. United Way is committed to low operating costs, organizational efficiency, volunteer participation, and in-kind services. Overhead expenses also enable United Way to distribute donor-designated contributions to outside nonprofit organizations, reducing the fundraising burden on those organizations.
